L. O. S. T.

THIS Morning in Annapolis, a Silver Watch Chain, with a Key, and a Cornelian Seal set in Silver; the Impression an old Man's Head. Whoever has found the said Chain and Seal, and will bring them to the Printing Office, shall have Five Shillings Reward, and no Questions ask'd.

To the several Sheriffs, Constables, and other Officers, of the Province of Maryland.

WHEREAS, on the 22d of this Instant February, a Schooner Vessel, capable of carrying about 1000 Bushels of Grain, and having on board a large Quantity of Chocolate, and sundry other Goods, was d. erted by her Crew, and taken up at Mr. Blackiston's in St. Mary's County, in the Province aforesaid, where she now lies. And whereas two Men, supposed to have deserted the said Vessel, went from the said Blackiston's, up the Road to Chaptico, one of them an Irishman, well set, fresh colour'd, having a clear Skin, about 25 Years of Age, 5 Feet 8 or 10 Inches high, and said his Name was Newton: The other is thought to be an Englishman, of near the same Height, and went by the Name of Jones. They were taken up at Chaptico, as Runaways, and being carried before Capt. Zachariah Bond, one of the Justices of St. Mary's County, they produced a Pass, signed by—Ward, a Justice of North Carolina, and also by Spencer Bill, a Justice of Westmoreland County, Virginia; which occasion'd the said Capt. Bond, not only to discharge the said Men, but likewise to sign the said Pass, as aforesaid: Since which it appears, that the said Vessel, was as aforesaid deserted; and that the aforesaid Newton and Jones were the last on board, at the Time of such Desertion.

It is further to be remark'd, that on the 23d Instant, their Passes were signed by Mr. Hawkins; on the 24th, by Mr. Arnold; and on the 25th, they applied to Mr. Chapman at London Town, to sign the same; who finding them in different Stories, refused to do it: Whereupon they relinquish'd their Design of coming to Annapolis, and procured an Almanack to direct them in the Road to Philadelphia. They were flush of Money: Newton's right Eye is black, occasion'd by a Blow; he has a large Scar on his under Lip; and is lame in his right Ankle.

Wherefore, in order to discover to whom the said Vessel and Goods do belong; and for the apprehending the said two Persons, supposed to have run away from the said Vessel (and from several concurring Circumstances suspected to have murder'd the Master of the said Vessel), that they may be dealt with according to Law: There are to require you, and every of you, to search diligently within your respective Precincts for the said Newton and Jones; and to make Hue and Cry after them from Town to Town, and from County to County, as well by Horsemen as Footmen: And if you find the said Newton and Jones, or either of them, the same to apprehend, and carry before some Provincial Magistrate, or Justice of the County where they or either of them shall be taken. And hereof fail not, at your Peril. Given under my Hand and Seal, this 27th Day of February, 1750||1.

JOHN BRICE.
